

Strengthening academic ties across borders

With the support of MDEM Intl. University „Dunărea de Jos” of Galați (Romania) and Admiral Makarov National University of Shipbuilding (Ukraine) have officially signed a Cooperation Agreement focused on education, research, and innovation.

The agreement was signed by Prof. Marian Barbu, Rector of UDJG, and Assoc. Prof. Mykhailov Mykhailov (Mihail Mihaylov), Vice-Rector for International Affairs and Educational Activity at NUOS. Following the ceremony, Prof. Barbu remarked:

“ This agreement reinforces UDJG’s role as a regional hub in naval engineering and opens new opportunities for students and faculty.”

MDEM Intl. warmly congratulates both institutions on this milestone partnership! We’re proud to support initiatives that foster cross-border collaboration, innovation, and excellence in maritime education. “

